Art Competition

All submissions must be accompanied by a signed statement from the artist that both attests that the artwork is entirely original, and that regardless of whether the Artist receives a financial award or other recognition under this contest, the artist represents and warrants the following to the Kelvin Smith Library (KSL) and to its assigns, licensees and representatives.

- The artist is the sole creator and owner of the Work(s), and has the authority to grant the rights contained in this Agreement, and have never transferred exclusive rights of the Work to any other person or entity.
- For each submitted Work, the artist irrevocably grants non-exclusive, perpetual, non-commercial and royalty-free rights to use or reproduce the Work, in whole or in part, and in all forms and media, and in all manner, for display (physical or virtual), as well as within University publications, web pages, or other presentations, whether for University educational or public relations-related purposes.
- The artist agrees and affirms the waiving of all rights to ownership or royalty, if any, which may have resulted from the use of the Work(s) for University purposes.
- The artist waives any right to inspect or approve the finished product, including but not limited to, any image in any media or form that may be created using my Work(s).
- To the best of the artist's knowledge:
  - the Work(s) do not infringe upon the copyright held by any other person or organization;
  - any individuals who may be visually represented and recognizable in the Work(s) previously granted their permission to be included in the Work(s) in perpetuity;
  - any portion of the Work(s) for which I do not hold copyright, prior to submission I obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright holder use of that person's Work(s) containing copyrighted materials (in whole or in part), and that I/We identified the creative or artistic work of any third party for material under copyright within the materials accompanying the submission of the Work(s); and
- The artist accepts that KSL retains the right to remove from any print or digital display any Work(s) without prior approval if KSL learns that the material violates in any way the intellectual property rights, including but not limited to copyright, of a third party.
- The artist waives any rights of My/Our personal privacy in the images or likenesses portrayed in the Work(s), including but not limited to any rights that might otherwise be protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.
- The artist accepts that the University disclaims any responsibility for such unauthorized use of my submitted Work(s), and that the University cannot control the unauthorized use of such Work(s) by persons other than the University, and therefore the artists holds the University harmless, and agrees that any claim the artist may have concerning unauthorized publication of the Work(s) is the sole responsibility of the artist, and that the artist will not pursue any such claim against the University.
